an excerpt from the article by R.A. Torrey:

It is not by seasons of mystical meditation and rapturous experiences that we learn to abide in Christ; it is by feeding upon His Word, His written Word as found in the Bible, and looking to the Holy Spirit to implant these words in our hearts and to make them a living thing in our hearts. If we thus let the words of Christ abide in us, they will stir us up to prayer. They will be the mold in which our prayers are shaped, and our prayers will be necessarily along the line of God's will, and will prevail with Him. Prevailing prayer is an impossibility where there is neglect of the study of the Word of God. If we would feed the fire of our prayers with the fuel of God's Word, all our difficulties in prayer would disappear.
