I do not know how true this is but this is very weird if so....

Over 100 AIDS specialists were on plane shot down over Ukraine

Putin, Ukraine trade blame for Thursday's crash, which left wreckage and bodies scattered across kilometers of rebel-held territory near Ukraine's border with Russia.

As world leaders demand an international investigation into the shooting down of a Malaysian jetliner on Thursday, it has emerged that more than 100 international AIDS researchers, activists and health workers may have been among the passengers of the plane.
