

Articles and Sermons :: How dare we NOT be changed.

How dare we NOT be changed. - posted by sermonindex (), on: 2005/4/28 15:51

I was hit by this recent sermon comment on an Leonard Ravenhill message:

What Have We Done? (April 28/2005)

Reviewed by: Sundaypunch

He sums up the sickness that pervades the church today. A divided heart. A slack devotion. A knowledge of God, but no real relationship with Him. I dare you to listen to this and not be affected.

Here is the message I encourage you to listen to it:

A Burning Heart by Leonard Ravenhill

Description: Ravenhill speaks from a text in Isaiah and speaks much about the role of the prophet. But really this is just him sharing his heart for revival and on the lukewarm condition of the church. You can really sense his burden as he just shares as the Spirit leads. You will be convicted as you hear this message and brought to your knees to become an agent of change in the church.