

Devotional Thoughts :: Treasures of Wisdom

Treasures of Wisdom - posted by followthelamb, on: 2015/10/1 23:49

Treasures of Wisdom is a devotional booklet containing writings of Martha Wing Robinson. The booklet was compiled by Mr. and Mrs. Gordon P. Gardiner.

Mr. Gardiner wrote a biography on Mrs. Robinson's life entitled "Radiant Glory" which you can read online here: <https://sites.google.com/site/radiantglory/radiantglory-contents>

(Just started reading this booklet recently and it has been such a blessing. Will try to post each day's entry in hope that it might be a blessing to those on Sermon Index too.)

October 1:

"Endure unto the end.
Night passes. Dawn is breaking.
Be ready for thy Saviour's call to thee;
What matter then what trials
have crossed thy pathway,
What stormy billows tossed thee on life's restless sea?
Behold, He cometh! O my soul! As clothed upon
With immortality you meet Him in the skies
And see Him as He is, 'twill well reward thee
To have one glance of welcome from His eye."

This is so true, I have personally seen this played out in my life in the past few years, especially what you said about the

"pruning will go on almost unknown to us".
Thanks! Mr.Bill

Just wanted to clarify quickly that these posts are not my words, they are from the writings of Martha Wing Robinson. Pr aise the Lord. Going to edit posts to have quotation marks for each day. Thanks! :)

November 1:

"So help me live as seeing Him, invisible
To mortal eye, but present with the soul;
As unto Him perform each humble duty,
The daily task, or seeming fruitless toil,
Each uttered word, as heard
By Him Who listens,
Each simple act as guided by His word,
That when He comes, my soul may, earth forgetting,
Leap forth to be forever with her Lord."

"The Bible: the one Book, the only Book, the great Book, God's Book, your Book for eternity, the Book you must have, the Book you badly need.

Oh, if you miss this Book, you miss everything. If you keep out of this Book, you keep out of the life of God. If you fail to read it, if you fail to devour it, if you fail to understand it, you fail in everything that is worth having.

God is in this Book. It is the Book of all books. It is the necessity of every soul. Get into this Book. Pray over it. Get it into your mind.

Live it, obey it, and it will deliver you from the world, the flesh, and the devil. It will be your passport into Glory."

This is something not seen as it should be by many people asking for their healing. The approach to God on that basis is the sound foundation for a confident faith. It's your right and privilege. It's God's place and appointment. You glorify and obey Him to claim your portion. It is in the atonement of Christ for you. You step out into the purchased possession of Christ's death for you by faith."

Because we do not have faith for instantaneous healing and He gives us just what we are able to claim by faith. What do we do when we get only a gradual or partial healing? Recognize our own lack of faith; keep humble; hold right on; be persistent and expectant. Ask God to perfect and complete the work; don't get worried or anxious. Thank Him for what victory we have. Get closer to Him until we can touch the hem of His garment."
