congratulations brother!

nice pictures, and now i've also seen the face behind "KingJimmy".

btw that hat (don't know how they call it) suits you well :- ) very impressive!

be blessed and be a blessing!

A Big Congratulations to you !!!

Some of my fondest memories as a young adult are my years at Bible College. I remember so many of the instructors telling us we would make friends that would last a lifetime, and that has proved to be true and invaluable as well.

God bless you as the Lord leads and guides for the future.

Tony

Jimmy

Congratulations and blessings on you for this accomplishment the Lord has allowed you to finish. I am looking forward to seeing what else the Lord is going to be doing in your life. Keep seeking Him first.
