Wow that young man just pours out Christ in his life doesn't he. Such a powerful testimony of God's love and redemption of every tear in his life, It's a real blessing and encouragement to hear this young man of God's testimony!

Yeah, amen. It is one of the most powerful testimonies I have heard (& I have heard a lot - I LOVE testimonies as they are little pictures of the Grace of God in Christ!).

Yes, this child's testimony is so filled with God's grace!! Praise Him!! Put me in mind of visitations I've heard of where God is blessing muslim people with life changing dreams and visions. Our Father is so mighty to SAVE, merciful and kind! Praise Him!!

Yeah,
Amen. I really enjoy quite a bit of their stuff. Just people from various churches, all denominations, all walks of life, all different talents & stories coming together to worship the Lord together. Good stuff. The brother whose testimony I started with in the OP explains the heart of "WorshipMob" in this video along with others (I think it was Garrett's "vision" to start with):
