

Welcome & Intro :: It's a privilege to be here, thank you

It's a privilege to be here, thank you, on: 2016/7/13 11:43

Hello, my name is sherri, I'm grateful to join in fellowship here.

My testimony in short....I came to know Jesus as Lord through Sunday school. I backslid many years.

When I turned back to Jesus over the last few years, I've had a strong burden for the persecuted church. Between studying the Word of God without a denominational filter and hearing incredible testimonies of the persecuted, it has brought me to brokenness, to take up my cross and follow Jesus.

God bless you all,

Love in Christ,

sherri

Sheri welcome to the forum sister. It does get a little wild and wooly here at times. But there are good saints with good hearts here. I pray your experience is a blessing on the forum. There are certainly many good messages to listen to from the Sermon Index archives.

I maintain a thread in the devotional section called From the Shadow of His Cross. It is about our persecuted brothers and sisters in Christ. I invite you to check it out.

My sister may Jesus continue to bless you through Sermonindexnet you continue to walk with Him.

Bro. Blaine
