My family and I are searching for a new home in Pennsylvania. We will be on the road for the next two months. So I will not be here for a while. Please pray for the Lord's guidance in our journey. I'll be back in August.

In Christ
Jeff

Jeff,

may the peace and grace of God be with you and your family these next few months! You will be missed brother! :)

In His love, Chanin

Dear Jeff,

There is always a right house. When I was planning my latest move I had a lot of thoughts about what I wanted. The Lord knew when and where that house would come onto my radar and He gave me a very clear check in my spirit against another one which He did not want me to have, which I respected. In the end, everything came together perfectly and we moved within the essential time frame. I hope you enjoy your trip and are blessed as you travel and rest.
