Hi Greg

Thats very unfair what you did and disgraceful.

I made a valid point and you obviously didnt look at the link that I posted as it clearly wasnt satanic or promoting any satanic music.

Very unfair and really disapointed in you

Hugh

Hi Staff,

I think you should look a bit more into the background of the popular music industry and in particular bands such as Led Zeppelin and what influenced them and their music writing. Goodfight ministries has a lot of videos and articles on their website and utube channel on the music industry.

Below is a link to a short video that exposes the dark side of L.Z.

Greg if it is not OK to post this link to Goodfight Ministries, then please delete it.

Edit: Actually I decided to delete it as the music in the critique might be a problem for some folk. But you can find it on the Goodfight ministry utube channel if you want to it.

What about brother Bob Dylan? He's a pretty talented guy and his gospel music was A-one. And no he has not reverted back to anyone or anything else. Still a Jesus guy based on most current interviews and statements. Some of the latest songs he has written have titles like, "Narrow Way" "Long and Wasted Years" "Pay in Blood" "Scarlet Town" "Early Roman Kings" "Tin Angel" "Tempest" "Roll on John".

As has been mentioned there is a clear link between Zepelin and Aleister Crowley who was a foremost satanist in the 20th century. This is very clear and not hidden at all through simple searches on the internet. How can God's children enjoy music written by inspiration of satanists?

Bob Dylan admitted he was a christian and left that faith and that he also admitting selling his soul literally to "the chief commander" satan.

"I've never said I'm born again. That's just a media term. I don't think I've been an agnostic. I've always thought there's a superior power, that this is not the real world and that there's a world to come." In response to Loder's asking whether he belonged to any church or synagogue, Dylan laughingly replied, "Not really. Uh, the Church of the Poison Mind."

Re: authority, on: 2016/12/4 16:05

News flash...this is a privately owned website. If the owner wants to delete or block or kick people off that is entirely within their right whether I agree with them or not. By participating in this website we are bringing ourselves under authority. It would do us all well to learn to submit to authority and if we have a problem with it then go to them privately.

Re: - posted by staff, on: 2016/12/4 17:37

Hi Greg

This has nothing to do with whether there is a link between Led Zepplin and Satanism. Its to do with the accusation that I was put up a link that was satanic. I think you should read carefully what was being debated, what was being linked and I think an apology is due. If your conscience is clear and you don't feel an apology is due that between you and God.

This is not about whether you have the right or authority to lock a thread its about the way you did and the underlying accusation that I find upsetting,

Yours Hugh

Hi Awakened

Thank you for your reminder of the rules and this obviously nothing to do with Authority and whether the website is privately owned is not an issue,

Bob Dylan did not say he sold his soul to the devil. It was taken from an interview done with 60 minutes news show from 2004 with Ed Bradley. That is absolutely not true. He did NOT say that at all. Those words were written in by the religious crackpot who suggested that Bob meant the chief command was satan. This is a gross twisting of Bob's words You can listen to it for yourself on youtube.

So if you are going to report at least report the truth about what he said.

Secondly Bob did say this in public this recently about his faith in 2015

"The rock icon was given the Person of the Year award by the charity organization MusiCares on Friday, and made a half-hour speech about his own career, the state of songwriting and why making great art is all about "confounding expectations."

As part of the trend of confounding his critics, he also announced that he's working on a new Gospel album with Christian music legends The Blackwood Brothers.

After reading several verses of the song "Stand By Me" (including "In the midst of faults and failures / Stand by me / When I do the best I can / And my friends don't understand / Thou who knowest all about me / Stand by me"), he said,

That's the song. I like it better than the pop song. If I record one by that name, that's going to be the one.

Bob in 2009 being interviewed regarding his Christmas album

BILL FLANAGAN: You really give a heroic performance of Oâ€™™ LITTLE TOWN OF BETHLEHEM The way you do it reminds me a little of an Irish rebel song. Thereâ€™™s something almost defiant in the way you sing, âœœThe hopes and fears of all the years are met in thee tonight.â€ I donâ€™™t want to put you on the spot, but you sure deliver that song like a true believer.

BOB DYLAN: Well, I am a true believer.

Amen

Brother,

I am sorry you were offended, the thread was also locked as it was on a topic that was not really going anywhere and so me saints were being misunderstood. Also when we start to share secular music like Led Zeppelin or Bob Dylan, I really felt the conversation was not worthwhile in its direction.

To be clear, whether or not both of them made a profession of faith does not sanctify their music and we should not feel a clear conscience to enjoy music they produced in sin and a lifestyle that is contrary to the gospel.

it is clear that Led Zeppelin was not a christian and was involved DEEPLY in the occult. So therefore to have his music played by anyone is NOT suitable for SermonIndex or in my personal estimation a Christian.

Bob Dylan is the same situation where even if he did make a profession of faith (which it does not seem clear at all he did) then how does that sanctify his music? If you search "bob dylan christian" on youtube he did make a profession of faith but has not seemingly continued in this.

Re: inspired by hell - posted by savannah, on: 2016/12/5 4:36

By whom were these musicians inspired? They were certainly not led by the Spirit of God!

But they were Led by a Zeppelin! Ironically, they chose such a name for their group due to someone who said that they'd never be successful, but rather would go down like a led zeppelin.

Greg is correct in associating them with satanic and occultic roots. Jimmy Page, the legendary lead guitarist of this band, owned the largest occult bookstore in England called the Equinox.

This rock and roll band just happened to be one of my idols before Jesus saved me. My music collection estimated $30,000.00. I destroyed that evil collection, and tossed it into the dumpster. I never regretted it, nor went back to listening to the devil's music. By the grace of God, I can say along with Keith Green, that, "Nothing lasts...except the grace of God...by which I'm saved."

The devil's music is a snare to many, especially youth, as the musicians are his proclaimers and prophets, promising lib erty but delivering bondage.

No christian ought to have anything to do with even a remake of their devil inspired music lyrics and songs!

To the dung heap with anything having even a stain of such hellish origin.

Here is some of the songs Bob wrote about Jesus and performs in concert to this day:

WAITIN' FOR YOU
TRYIN' TO GET TO HEAVEN
STANDING IN THE DOORWAY
DIGNITY
GOD KNOWS
SHOOTING STAR
WHAT GOOD AM I?
RING THEM BELLS
MAN OF PEACE
EVERY GRAIN OF SAND
SAVING GRACE
IN THE GARDEN
SOLID ROCK
I BELIEVE IN YOU
GOTTA SERVE SOMEBODY
FOREVER YOUNG
I SHALL BE RELEASED
DOWN IN THE FLOOD

These songs he did not write but performs still:

A VOICE FROM ON HIGH
HALLELUJAH I'M READY TO GO
SOMEBODY TOUCHED ME
I AM THE MAN THOMAS
THIS WORLD CAN'T STAND LONG
ROCK OF AGES
PASS ME NOT O GENTLE SAVIOR
WAIT FOR THE LIGHT TO SHINE
A SATISFIED MIND
I'LL NOT BE A STRANGER
RANK STRANGERS TO ME
MAN OF CONSTANT SORROW

Here is Bob in Israel in 2011 singing a song he wrote called Chang my way of thinking, Here are some of HIS lyrics that he sung at Tel Aviv,

"Jesus is calling
He's coming back to gather His jewels
Jesus is coming
He's coming back to gather His jewels
The sun is shining
Ain't but one train on this track
Storms on the ocean

Storms out on the mountain too
Oh Lord
You know I have no friend without you "

In public, In Israel of all places he sings his own composition about JESUS

You cannot lump him in with the others.

Saints,

I am going to close this thread and just state publically I am sorry if I offended or hurt any brother by what I said, my goal was not to single out any brother but to make it clear that we do not want these type of music or even allusions to it on SermonIndex.

We are locking this thread and will trust the Holy Spirit can guide in areas of conscience on music we can listen to in our own homes.
