Some may ask, "What about the disciples' incredible experience on the Mount of Transfiguration? Wasn't that a manifestation of God's glory? There was an overpowering light and the miraculous appearance of Moses and Elijah."

In that incredible moment, God's glory wasn't in Moses or Elijah or even in the spectacular light. Rather, His radiant glory was in Jesus:

"His face did shine as the sun, and his raiment was white as the light. . . . Behold a voice out of the cloud, which said, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased; hear ye him" (Matthew 17:2, 5, my italics).

Here is God's glory personified in Christ. Jesus is the revelation of all that God said He was to Moses: gracious, merciful, longsuffering, abundant in goodness and truth, keeping mercy for thousands, forgiving sins. At the Mount of Transfiguration God revealed a living picture of His own glory. "It is all now embodied in My Son."

Beloved, God wants to open our eyes to "the riches of the glory of his inheritance in the saints" (Ephesians 1:18). This means, simply, that all the glory revealed to Moses is embodied in God's Son. And now Christ has been given to us as our inheritance.

"In dwelleth all the fullness of the Godhead bodily" (Colossians 2:9, my paraphrase).
