community guiding principles , on: 2016/12/19 0:04

dear sermonindex I just finished reading your community guiding principles and it really blessed my heart because really that's how we should be living on a daily basis with others and not just on sermonindex I really appreciate those thoughts because the Lord is really working with me on the very thing about ministering to other Christians I have to always ask him what do you want me to say, what's my motive what's my agenda and you know what most of the time I end up not saying anything at all. this is why I am so very very grateful for the Holy Spirit who's teaching me how to live my life again outside of the flesh.
