I hope there isn't already a topic started concerning your new xanga blog. I scanned the topics and I didn't see any.

Anyway, I'm really excited about your new blog. I think this will open a whole new door to ministry! And I also believe it will allow more of the online community, both Christian and non-Christian, to find this website as well. This is very exciting! God bless your ministry to the masses!

Was wondering why he has been so quiet... 8-)

Praise God brother, am looking forward to this. You just never know the things that may come forth from this man ...

This is really great! I can already see the potential to reach another audience. I am really hoping that more young people will be interested in seeing what SI is all about- and then be exposed to some wonderful and foundational truths.

To God be the glory!

Yeah, there are a lot of people that will look at blogs. If you get into a couple blog rings and comment on other people's blogs you will get many people reading your thoughts and possibly even coming to SermonIndex.

Thanks for starting this thread Yolanda. Yes I am wanting to definitely allow the SermonIndex users to know of this blog and to comment on it and check it. I will be posting the blog entries also in the forums in the "devotions" section but having it on the blog also will allow the message to reach many more people and hopefully help SermonIndex to be found by other "seekers".

My hope is that the SI blog will become the largest and most used blog that is "christian" on xanga.com Please help make this a reality by your comments, subscribing to the blog and also linking to it from your own blog.

Here are a few initial comments on the blog that were encouraging and a blessing to read:

Great idea! Praying that this reaches an even wider audience. This reminds me of this quote by William Carey "Expect great things from God, attempt great things for God." The timeless and foundational truths that are provided at SI are obviously something the Lord is wanting to use for his glory! May the Lord keep His hand upon you and SI. ysiC-Chanin

Hey Greg...this is a great idea brother!

"So the word of the Lord grew mightily and prevailed" (Acts 19:20)

"But the word of God grew and spread itself" (Acts 12:24)

"Then the word of God spread, and the number of the disciples multiplied greatly..." (Acts 6:7)

May people all over the world get to know the Lord Jesus and get to know Him as a reality.

Be very blessed on your trip to the Ukraine. I very much look forward to meeting you, Yolanda and Kelly. I will keep you in my prayers.

In Him,

Paul

Hi Greg,

wow, you got more busy, love to see this, may God bless this also!

Psalm 138:8

"The LORD will perfect that which concerneth me: thy mercy, O LORD, endureth for ever: forsake not the works of thine own hands."

in the dutch translation it says "will not let go the works of your hands"

i pray that The Lord will strengthen your hands, He has started a good work in you, you will bear fruit as long as you abide in Him! that He may receive all the glory, honour and credit! as it is written in Joh 15:8 "Herein is my Father glorified, that ye bear much fruit.."

Nehemiah 6:9

"Now therefore, O God, strengthen my hands."

in Him

William

William

Thanks brother william for the scriptures, how timely for my soul. On the blog I am going into a 26 part series:

The series is on "Hell and Everlasting Punishment" and the first part is on the topic of "abiding wrath". Its a much neglected subject that I hope many will start to think on more.

It's neat what you're posting, and it seems like a very interesting book from which you're posting from. Looking forward to your future posts on xanga. =)
