Brothers and Sisters,

Today is the first day of Ramadan. This is the start of the fast where Muslims will seek their god. Let our prayers be that they seek the true and living God.

Lord willing I will be sending out a prayer each day. These prayer points will be taken from the calendar that Open Door s has prepared to pray through Ramadan. These prayer points will also encompass the persecuted Church in Islamic Nations.

I pray these daily prayer points will help focus your prayers on the harvest of Muslim souls. But should you choose to use another prayer guide or just a pray on your own. During this month of Ramadan please pray that Muslims will find saving faith and life in the Lord Jesus Christ.

Day 1

Pray for believers who are battling fear at the thought of the Islamic extremists throughout their region. Pray they gladly use their life and death to glorify God.

Yet they still refuse to recant their faith in Christ. Please keep our brothers and sisters in Eritrea in your prayers. Please pray they stay hidden in Christ.

Please continue to call out for the salvation of Muslims souls during this month of Ramadan. The recent violence by jihadists in Egypt and the Philippines testify of hearts that are still in the domain of darkness. Please pray that they will be transferred from the kingdom of darkness into the kingdom of His beloved Son.

Please pray for comfort of those who have lost a loved ones in the recent violence in the Philippines and Egypt. Pray that they will know the abundant comfort of Christ.

Please pray for the protection of our brothers and sisters during the month of Ramadan. The angels of the Lord encamp around those who fear Him.

Comment from Al-Qaeda, â€œOur fight is Jihad and an obligatory worship. And every obligatory act of worship has 70 times more reward in Ramadan.â€

2 Corinthians 10:3-5

For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war according to the flesh for the weapons of our warfare are not of the flesh, but divinely powerful for the destruction of fortresses. We are destroying speculations and every lofty thing raised up against the knowledge of God, and we are taking every thought captive to the obedience of Christ.

Please...

Re: Day 27...Praying thru Ramadan , on: 2017/6/21 14:49

My brothers and Sisters,

Tonight is considered to be a night of power for Muslims around the world. Though there is some confusion as to win the actual night of power is during the 2017 Ramadan. Consensus seems to be that tonight will be the night of power for many Muslims seeking their god.

Because of this I feel led to convene a special Persecution Watch call tonight. Asking those who may, to come and join me in calling out for Muslim salvations during this night as they are seeking their god. Below is an article encouraging us to pray for Muslims during this special night. Also there will be suggested prayer points that follow the article and our call information.

~~â€œ~~

Why should Christians pray during Ramadan?

The Night of Power, or Laylat al-Qadr, is the night during Ramadan that Muslims believe salvation can be granted. It's powerful because it is believed to be the night the Quran was first revealed to Mohammad. It is typical to pray and fast throughout the night, some Muslims even stay at the mosque until morning to pray. It is common to recite prayers extolling God as the one who saves and forgives, asking for him to forgive their sins. It is said prayers on this night are worth more than 1000 months of prayer. God often visits people with dreams and visions during this time.

The night changes each year, but it is typically believed to be the 27th night of Ramadan, which would be Wednesday June 21. This adds just another layer of confusion and fear for Muslims as they cannot even be sure whether or not their prayers were accepted.

We want to pray with and for our Muslim neighbors for dreams and visions of the One who offers complete salvation. We pray for them to know true peace and freedom through Jesus Christ.

~~â€œ~~

Please pray.....

~~â€œ~~ That Muslims will find Jesus during their night of power.

~~â€œ~~ That they will encounter Jesus in dreams and visions.

~~â€œ~~ For the protection of those who will share Jesus with their Muslim neighbors during this time.

~~â€œ~~ That those seeking Jesus and new believers will have access to the word of God. Particular the New Testament that they call in Arabic the Injil.

~~â€œ~~ That new believers during this time will be disciplined through secret fellowships.

~~â€œ~~ that new we'll come out of these new converts. That they will be filled with the Holy Spirit and share Jesus with a gracious loving boldness.

~~â€œ~~

Day 30

In northern Nigeria, Christian deaths due to attacks from Boko Haram have increased.

Please....

â€œâ€œâ€œ Please pray that the blood of the martyrs will bring forth much gospel fruit.

â€œâ€œâ€œ Pray these terrorists would have Saul-to-Paul conversion during Ramadan.

â€œâ€œâ€œ Pray that young people who are filled with hopelessness will not turn to Islam. But will turn to the hope that Jesus offers through the gospel of eternal life.

â€œâ€œâ€œ Pray that the church in the restricted nations and the west will have a burden to reach out to the lost with the hope of Jesus Christ.

â€œâ€œâ€œ Pray that the believing church around the world will cry out for the Salvation of the Muslims even after this month of Ramadan.

Day 31

John 15:7-8

If you abide in me and my words abide in you, ask whatever you wish and it will be done for you. My father is glorified by this, that you bear much fruit, and so prove to be my disciples.

On the final day of Ramadan, join us in thanking God for all He has done during this prayer campaign, and for the many who encountered God during this time.

I realize that I have missed some days in sending out these prayer points. and the month of Ramadan has already passed. But let us offer prayers of praise and thanks to the many new brothers and sisters that God has brought into His kingdom. And let us continue to call out for the global harvest of souls among the Muslims.
