It's a big mix.. I am hoping alot of pastors get into this site and use the sermons as a way of feeding themselves and bei encouraged. There are alot of lay people, but new converts I would say are minimal, I may be wrong.

Yes Welcome!
Hope you find yourself right at home.
Not much to add to Greg's comments other than there are some sharp minds, but more importantly big hearts. I would say as a whole that we are all looking to grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord, willing to share in our experience and knowledge. Personally, this site has been a tremendous blessing. Hope you are blessed by it as well!

I have met a lot of pastors and pastors-to-be on the site. I myself am a 19-month-old layperson. As a girl, won't go beyond that (except length of time since rebirth...).
I know there is a lot to take in, so take your time! :-) The longer you're with the site, the more believers you'll meet, the more opportunities you'll give God to feed and grow you, and the larger your chances of developing carpal tunnel syndrome being active in the forums (just kidding...).
Looking forward to getting to know you better! :-P

Did you 'edit' yours Chosen7Stone?

Are you saying that you have been a follower for only 19 months? At first I thought it was a typo and that you meant 19 years old....
