Many of us throughout the world are compelled to stay at home at this time, due to the restrictions imposed by our governments. This gives us all a wonderful opportunity to redeem the time by hearing God's Word and thus being prepared for the coming days.

Further to the sermon that we forwarded to all of you yesterday:

Here is another sermon that Brother Zac Poonen preached more than 12 years ago as a New Year message for the year 2008. It has a very appropriate message for the time in which we are living and for the situation that the world is facing right now. You are invited to listen to it and be blessed and challenged:

If this blesses you, please be sure to forward it to those you know who will be blessed by it as well.

And be wise and careful to protect your health in these days. Let us pray for one another.

And remember that:

God is still on the throne,
And He will remember His own;
Though trials may press us and burdens distress us,
He never will leave us alone.
God is still on the throne,
He never forsaketh His own;
His promise is true, He will not forget you;
God is still on the throne.

Remember the words of our Lord Jesus: "Are not two sparrows sold for a cent? Yet not one of them will fall to the ground apart from your Father. The very hairs of your head are all numbered. So do not fear; you are more valuable than many sparrows." (Matthew 10:29-31).
