Good show!! thank you for quote, as I was feeling a tug towards a night given to secret prayer in intercession, thanks for the confirmation, as we should be ministers and high priests of the New Covenant.

God bless you and SI is my prayer.

Yes brother,

The burden to be seeking the Lord in prayer has been tremendous, the work is good but prayer is the main work the Lord is wanting his church to do. It is not just belief but active belief that pleases the Lord. Allow us to be simply obedient in this one thing Lord!

I am wanting to set aside definite amounts of time to prayer and intercession. Bless you brother as you seek the face of the Lord.
