Martha ravenhill, Leonards wife... - posted by brentw (), on: 2005/12/23 15:53

Martha Ravenhill told me that every one that leonard R. prayed for who had cancer WAS HEALED. She said nobody even new this about him. And she told me that he spent 8-10 hours a day in prayer. She said my husband knew God. Powerful and interesting.

Brethern, Lets examine OUR life.

PS- More coming soon

Martha said ministers would call or come over in the mornings, and Lenoard would still be in bed. What they didnt know he was up over half the night praying. These men thought what kind of preacher is he sleeping so late. Martha never told them why.

The Ravenhills lived for the opinion of God not men.

Gal 1:10 For do I now persuade men, or God? or do I seek to please men? for if I yet pleased men, I should not be the servant of Christ.

Amen! :-)

... and they were all healed. (Acts 5:16)

The mark of a life dedicated to God. Peter is said to have had "knees of a camel" when he died, due to his prayer life.

I know an older brother in the lord who was discipled by Leonard Ravenhill named Darren Ely.

One day, Darren Ely was witnessing to a guy, and the guy came under such conviction that he started vomiting.

Later that week, Leonard Ravenhill told him that he was praying for him at the very time he was witnessing to that guy.

Can you continue with these testimonies, brentw?

Thank you.

I read a story about Spurgeon:

Years ago The Chaplain magazine told how the noted preacher Charles Spurgeon and his wife were called miserly because they sold all the eggs their chickens laid and wouldn't give any away. Because they always made a profit on their butter, milk, and eggs, rumors circulated that they were greedy.

The Spurgeons, however, took the criticism graciously, and only after the death of Mrs. Spurgeon was the truth revealed. The records showed that their entire profits had been used to support two needy, elderly widows whose husbands had spent their lives in serving the Lord. The Spurgeons had refused to defend themselves because they did not want to call attention to their giving.

Other source:

Charles Spurgeon and his wife, according to a story in the Chaplain magazine, would sell, but refused to give away, the eggs their chickens laid. Even close relatives were told, "You may have them if you pay for them." As a result some people labeled the Spurgeons greedy and grasping.

They accepted the criticisms without defending themselves, and only after Mrs. Spurgeon died was the full story revealed. All the profits from the sale of eggs went to support two elderly widows. Because the Spurgeons were unwilling to let their left hand know what the right hand was doing (Matt. 6:3), they endured the attacks in silence.

great testimonies.....

Glory be to our God who works such great things in us men and women.

All the Glory be to our God.

God bless u all! Let us therefore do likewise.....

Whilst these testimonies of these heroes of the faith, if you like, are great examples, how would we fare in being falsely accused? Would we keep silent, or would we fight vigorously to defend ourselves? As it says in Isaiah 53 like a sheep before its shearers He opened not his mouth. Can we be like that? Let it be our goal. God bless.

Does anyone remember another person like that?

There are times in the Bible that Jesus Himself simply walked away from an argument.

Proverbs 26:4 - 'Answer not a fool according to his folly, lest thou also be like unto him.'

The question is, do you care so little about what man thinks of you, that you could walk away even whilst being called a 'chicken,' or something of that effect?

Heavenly Father, teach us humility please!
