

SermonIndex Announcements :: Fellowship locator/ministry connector?

Fellowship locator/ministry connector? - posted by groh_frog, on: 2005/12/25 0:45

Hey, I'm not sure if this would be the right place to ask this, but we'd been talking earlier about getting something together to help connect members around the world with others for fellowship/ministry. I know that all of the moderators probably have a full plate, but is there any way to create a voluntary database of people to help them connect?

Thanks again, also, for all that you guys have done for us.

Grace and Peace...

Right now you can search all the members here:

I am praying about having an SermonIndex Conference (in person) in North America in 2006. Also I am wanting to get a n online teaching sessions in video on SermonIndex too.

Thank you for your prayers and patience in these matters.
