

SermonIndex Announcements :: Issue No. 5 released of "The Old Paths"*Issue No. 5 released of "The Old Paths" - posted by sermonindex (), on: 2005/12/28 21:23

[Image: http://www.sermonindex.net/promo_oldpaths.gif]

Download the latest issue here, It is aprox 1.0mb large pdf document.

I would love to get some feedback on what people think. Do print it out and make copies for others.

Re: Issue No. 5 released of "The Old Paths" - posted by sermonindex (), on: 2005/12/28 23:41

Here is one of the quotes from the last page of the old paths publication that I have been thinking on:

"Victory is the normal experience of a Christian; defeat should be the abnormal experience."

-Watchman Nee

Re: - posted by sermonindex (), on: 2005/12/29 22:07

I just wanted to get this out there again. I won't be sending the email newsletter until january to announce this release. e njoy.

Re: - posted by sermonindex (), on: 2005/12/31 13:54

"with complete consecration comes perfect peace."

-watchman nee

Has anyone had a chance to view this issue of the Old Paths, comments would be appreciated and things that blessed y ou.

Re: Old Paths 5 - posted by DezCall (), on: 2006/1/1 10:10

Dear brother,

I printed the newsletter and read it on New Year's Eve, while sitting near to a fire.

The value of this ministry has been brought to mind again. The necessity to keep you in prayer also. Let me first of all share some words that touched me:

"If the coming of the Spirit didn't revolutionize your prayer life, you'd better check on it. I'm not so sure you got what God wanted you to get."

(Why We Don't Have Revival - Ravenhill)

"The more self-confidence you have, the less you pray. The less self-confidence you have, the more you have to pray."

(Why We Don't Have Revival - Ravenhill)

"The very life of Christ has been put within us, and is moving with us a perfect life. May the Lord help us to see the power of this life."

(Life In The Spirit - Wigglesworth)

"In the life of the Spirit God undertakes to do what we cannot do."

(Life In The Spirit - Wigglesworth)

"Perfect obedience would be perfect happiness, if only we had perfect confidence in the power we were obeyin g."

(The Joy of Obedience - Whitall Smith)

"Your love and devotion are His precious reward for all He has done for you. It is unspeakably sweet to Him. Do not be afraid, then, to let yourself go in wholehearted devotion to the Lord. Others may not approve, but He will."
(The Joy of Obedience - Whitall Smith)

"We talk of the second coming, half of the world has never heard of the first."
(Quotes - Smith)

"Christ is the Son of God. He died to atone for men's sin, and after three days rose again. This is the most important fact in the universe. I die believing in Christ."
(Quotes - Watchman Nee, note found under his pillow, in prison, at his death)

"The sight of any trouble strikes terror into the heart of those who do not have faith, but those who trust Him say, 'Here comes my food!'"
(Quotes - Watchman Nee)

It was wonderful to read all of this. The question will always remain: with what will we feed ourselves? For what we eat will fix our taste and preferences.

May the Lord keep you close to Him, Greg, as He continues to use you for the proclamation of His glorious, holy and beautiful name.

Your brother,

Paul

Re: - posted by sermonindex (), on: 2006/1/1 13:07

Quote:

-----I printed the newsletter and read it on New Year's Eve, while sitting near to a fire.

After reading your post I can't but think of the words from the hymn: "My heart was strangely warmed" and "their hearts burned within them." Brother your words are a great encouragement, these Old Paths editions are a blessing to me as much as anyone else. Oh to sit beside these old divines and to think on their vision of Christ and the depths of His love which at a privilege we have in this generation.

Re: - posted by sermonindex (), on: 2006/1/2 10:59

I am just making 100 copies of this newsletter to offer freely to the churches that me and Jesse Morrell will be speaking at in this upcoming month in Maryland and Missouri. As I am printing these out I am thinking of all the lives that are going to be blessed and touched. If you have a printer why not pray about using it to print out 50-100 old paths to hand out to Christians and your church.

Re: - posted by sermonindex (), on: 2006/1/14 22:13

It has been awesome to hear of how some people have been blessed by this current issue. Do make copies for others and yourself.

Re: Issue No. 5 released of "The Old Paths" - posted by freedbyjc (), on: 2006/2/1 8:37

The Joy of Obedience was an awesome article...thank you for including it. This discipline has always been dear to my heart and it was truly encouraging to feel that I am walking in the footsteps of the saints and continuing on the right path.

As soon as I get it, I forward the Newsletter.pdf to all of the leadership team at the church and print 10 copies to leave at the welcome center for the interested to read.

God bless you and your efforts! They are making a difference. It blesses me and pleases the Lord to hear Spurgeon, Tozer and Ravenhill quotes being used by the shepherds to encourage the flock; To stop banking their ardor for their savior and fire up their faith and put it into practice throughout the week and to call them to preach the gospel with their lives to return the lost, inside and outside the church, to their shepherd.

Re: It's a blessing!, on: 2006/2/8 14:56

The January issue of Old Paths was a great blessing. I enjoyed the article by Stephen Olford, The Hour of Desperation ("Revival is ultimately Christ Himself, seen, felt, heard, living, active, moving in and through His body on earth."). Leonard Ravenhill's article, Why We Don't Have Revival needs to be read over and over again!

I printed out eight copies and gave them to friends at church. One lady in particular has been greatly blessed. The newsletter has introduced Leonard Ravenhill to her I think. :-)

I call "The Old Paths" a shorter version of Herald of His Coming (published out of Indiana, www.heraldofhiscoming.com). :-) Both are powerful reading material. "The Old Paths" is more in bitesize pieces though!

I am looking forward to the next issue.

Praying God's guidance for you (sermonindex) and this ministry,

~Joy

Re: - posted by sermonindex (), on: 2006/2/8 21:53

Quote:

-----I am looking forward to the next issue.

I have been at bible school for the last week and have been quite busy and have not been able to get this next feb issue out. I will try to get something out soon. Thanks for the patience.

Re:, on: 2006/3/16 10:45

Quote:

-----I have been at bible school for the last week and have been quite busy and have not been able to get this next feb issue out. I will try to get something out soon. Thanks for the patience.

Just wanted to bring this up again to remind the saints to pray for Greg as he assembles this newsletter. He is doing so much to edify everyone here on SI, let us remember to pray for him and the other moderators.