For Christmas, I put together a CD with carols and some Gospel messages on (which related to Christmas - Thanks to S I). I gave out over 100 and the response was good. I would like to do the same at Easter, but there is a lack of easter 'carols' though there are many easter messages. Has anyone out there got any suggestions?

These are for non-Christians, and will be handed out like tracts

I'm looking for short Gospel messages (about 10 mins), easter songs which most people will recognise, compilations like on fireonthealtar, poems (audio of course) and Bible readings.

I know Handel's Messiah is good and I have the 'one minute Gospel' off fireonthealtar.

Thanks in advance

The compilation titled "The Simple Gospel" with Ernest O'Neil as the speaker available here on sermonindex might be a good idea. It is a wonderful presentation of the gospel. Give it a listen and let me know what you think. Here is the link.

Great idea!!

Here's the tune that sprung into my mind, I hesitate to tell you all b/c it DATES me, but my favorite other than Handel's Messiah and the like, is Dallas Holm singing "Rise Again". It really is sweet.

So, ok, now the secret's out, I'm really NOT 20-something.

ha ha ha
