but what sayest thou? - posted by ChrisJD (), on: 2006/3/18 9:38

Greetings to all the beloved of the Lord. May I offer the following for our carefull consideration. And may the Lord God of Heaven be blessed from our lives today.

Quote:
-----but what sayest thou?

This question was asked of the Lord after a woman was brought to him who had been taken in the act of adultery.

The scripture says they which asked this question sought to tempt Him

Quote:
-----This they said, tempting him

for this purpose

Quote:
----- that they might have to accuse him.

Dear brothers and sisters, I would ask you, has the tempter been seeking that of which he might accuse you? at work, at home, or even here?

It is written in the proverbs

Quote:
----- A fool's mouth is his destruction, and his lips are the snare of his soul.

And is it not the same for us today?

Let us be reminded again,

Quote:
-----every idle word that men shall speak, they shall give account thereof in the day of judgment.

and

Quote:
-----In the multitude of words there wanteth not sin

Quote:

-----but he that refraineth his lips is wise

All grace be yours from our God.
